

Lesson Development

UNIT F

Sub Unit F4 – Fire fighting

Group: 1G Location: Main Chemistry Lab

Date/Time: 8th January 2007/9h35 to 10h45

Timing	Teacher Activity	Pupil Activity	Resources	Assessment Items What will I use to measure the pupils learning?
0-5min	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Standing in the entrance supervising line up.- mark registration and handle hwk.- instructions for arrival/starter activity	-	-	- -Verify seating plan and repeat boundaries in the classroom if it's necessary.
5-10min 30min	Lesson overview: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Share the learning objectives and learning outcomes. Activity 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Practical and investigation work.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Teacher will make a recap of last lesson with a starter activity. Correction of the activity.- Pupils will pay attention to teacher introducing the new unit with a practical activity that involves an investigation work.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">-computer-teacher-board(if necessary) -text book-exercise book-computer-investigation folder- lab items (see risk assessment)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Interaction with classroom using some Q+A. - Teacher will be aware of all the difficulties by supporting all pupils during the task.

10min	Activity 2 - Correction of the investigation work.	Pupils need to pay attention and help teacher correct the investigation work.	- investigation worksheet - white board	Possibilities to pupils take too much time to develop the practical activity and the investigation work, so I will support them during the lesson.
5min	Homework - Finish the investigation work and as alternative question 3 on page 63 of the text book.	- Pupils need to finish at home the investigation work and as alternative(if they finish the work during the lesson) answer question 3 on page 63.	- worksheet -computer (if necessary) - exercise book - white board - text book	I will mark the homework.