

Adaptation in Plants

1 – How are plants adapted to live in dry and hot conditions?

2 – How do plants store and lose water?

Notes...

- Plants lose water all the time by evaporation from their leaves.
- Plants that live in dry places have adaptations which help them to reduce water loss.

These adaptations often included reduce surface area of their leaves and/or water storage tissues.

